

would keep her family through the winter. The old cellar was a scary place, but well kept by her.

Hunting for the abundant game in Pulaski County helped Luther, too. He would raise coon dogs for sale or trade. His favorite dog, Lucky, came to him while hunting one night. Luther found the little pup in a stump and brought him home. Coon hunting and selling the hides was a well favored sport. Hunting for fresh game kept the freezer full and served as a sport for the whole family.

Luther worked to help build Fort Leonard Wood by working for the C.C.C., or Civilian Conservation Corps, in the 1930's. He helped build roads and with the trail construction. They lived in Laquey, behind the Fairview Baptist Church.

To this union, six children were born—Luther Ellis Massey, Evelyn Marie Adkin, Ruby Jewell Clark,

Carolyn Sue Garratt McGee, Juanita Mae Anderson My and Phyllis Maxine Graves. Later came a host of grandkids and great grandkids. Luther and Annie enjoyed each and every one of them. We love them early and they are greatly missed. Thank you Mom and Dad for all you did! The Massey Family.

~What Your Relatives Were Doing in 1901

Although we failed to locate any existing Pulaski County newspapers in our research of one hundred year ago events, KJPW Radio did discover an unusually large number of personal items from this county that were printed in several other newspapers. This was a rare find indeed, because local newspapers of that era almost exclusively reported about people in their respective communities.

Readers should understand that the events printed below most likely occurred some eight to fifteen days prior to the underlined dates, which merely denote the actual publication dates of the newspapers that had lifted the personals from the latest editions of the Pulaski County Democrat, the Dixon Echo, the Iberia Impetus and the Richland Cyclone.

April 19th

The Normal School at Waynesville opened last Monday with an enrollment of 54 students, conducted by Profs. Lumpkin and Decker.

Mrs. Rigsby is building a handsome cottage residence in Waynesville.

Mert Lane, a student at a St. Louis medical college, is expected to arrive at his home in Waynesville this week a full-fledged "saw bones."

Mrs. Clint Huckins and son Ralph, of Herrington, Kan., are guests of the family of Dr. L. Tice at Waynesville.

On Sunday, April 7, Mr. Giles E. Cole and Miss Mona Butler were united in marriage, Rev. G. M. Jones officiating.

Prof. J. T. Lumpkin, principal of the Waynesville Normal School, was chosen county school commissioner by a majority of 325 over Prof. Jordan. Lumpkin is well known in this city.

The 15-year-old son of Jos. Bowman, who mysteriously disappeared from his home near Dixon about two weeks ago, has been found with relatives at Republic, Greene Co.

T. V. Imboden, of Dixon, ex-sheriff of Pulaski County, is an applicant for the appointment to the position as turnkey at the penitentiary. Tom Imboden will be remembered here as the man who ran Wils. Howard down for the murder of the deaf mute in Maries County. He found him in the San Quintin, Cal., penitentiary and brought him back here to stand trial for murder. Tom will make a faithful and efficient officer.

April 26th

Frank Logan, the boy mail carrier on the Waynesville and Moab route, arrived at Decker Wednesday very sick. He hired a man to take the mail to Moab but was unable to secure someone to take it on to Waynesville. So it had to lay over until Thursday.

An Epworth League chapter was organized at the M. E. church, south, in Waynesville on Sunday, April 14, with Prof. G. M. Reed president.

Mrs. G. A. Burchard and children, of St. Louis, are visiting friends and relatives in Waynesville.

A 10-pound boy came Monday night to gladden the home of Judge and Mrs. Vaught of Waynesville.

May 3rd

Master Lilburn Robinson, of St. Louis, is a guest of his sister, Mrs. L. H. Tower, of Mount Pleasant, this week.

Nelson Johnson and family, of Swedeborg, have gone to Minnesota with a view to making a home in the northwest.

Miss Ada Goodman, of Hancock, returned from an extended visit to friends and relatives in the west.

Miss Nora Robinson, of DeBruin, has been selected to teach the school at Gasconade again this year.

Charlie McDonald, a young man raised by Mr. J. M. Rollins, of Richland, and who enlisted in the U. S. Navy at Chicago in January, is visiting the family of Sam Rollins this week. After enlisting he embarked from San Francisco to Honolulu, afterward his vessel returned to San Francisco, when he was discharged on account of sickness.

Fred Watts and Miss Maude Hammond were married near Richland, Judge A. J. McDonald performing the ceremony.

The State Board of Education appointed C. H. Gove, of Richland, a member of the County Board of Education.

Miss Ethel Bramel, a daughter of D. H. Bramel, of Dixon, is confined at quarantine hospital, St. Louis, with the smallpox.

J. W. Armstrong, of Richland, has been promoted from lieutenant-colonel on Gov. Docker's staff to that of brigadier-general and chief of ordnance. Hon. J. W. Farris, of Lebanon, was appointed to this position and resigned.

The party given by Miss Ethel Hooker at her home at Hooker, on Friday night of last week, was largely attended by young folks from all parts of the county. About fifty guests were entertained. Those from Dixon were: Misses Mossie Rolene, Lena Roderick, Grace and Isa Prewett; Messrs. Ligh, Louis Rolens, General Christeson, Herbert Houk, Herbert Roderick and Virgil Murphy. Frank Houk, John Moore and Henry Ousley were out from Newburg.

May 10th

Robert Green and Ed Manes have been employed by the School Board at Swedeborg to teach the Fall and Winter school there.

Miss Effie Waller, of Waynesville, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. A. L. Heimaster at Swedeborg last week.

W. T. Hutcheson is building a residence at Crocker

Rev. Drennon is holding a series of revival services at Crocker.

Miss Blanche Tallman has returned from a lengthy sojourn in St. Louis to teach the summer term of school at Crocker.

Frank Brown, of Bloodland, will spend the summer in Springfield.

G. M. Thompson and family, of the Tribune neighborhood, left last week for Eagle, Colorado, where they will reside.

A. A. Dodd, of Waynesville, purchased a lot in Colly's addition, adjoining the L. N. Hufft property, and will soon begin the erection of a residence property.

Lafayette Crossland, of Smith Hollow, was kicked in the head by a horse on Saturday of last week, from the effects of which he died of concussion of the brain.

Nashville Strickland and Miss Ollie Power, of Dixon, were married at Black's Hotel, Waynesville, on Friday afternoon of last week. Judge W. L. Vaught officiated. They returned to Dixon the next morning.

May 24th

T. M. Jones, a prominent attorney of Rolla, was in Waynesville last week on professional business.

Rev. H. M. Sutton, of Spring Garden, is conducting a series of revival services at the Baptist Church in Waynesville this week.

The annual fish fry, held at the mouth of Roubidoux on Thursday and Friday of last week, was thoroughly enjoyed.

Dr. Jones, of St. Louis, accompanied by his friend, Dr. B. N. Pippin, of Crocker, spent last week fishing on the river near Waynesville.

Judge and Mrs. W. T. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Grossenhider and Misses Edith and Bertha Gibbs, of Richland, spent Sunday with friends in Waynesville.

Eld. J. J. Watts will on next Sunday preach the funeral of Perry Logan, deceased, at Rolling Heath Baptist church. Eld. W. C. Peterson will assist in the services after which a basket dinner will be spread on the ground.

Mrs. Ben Roper, of Crocker, has returned from a visit to friends at Kansas City.

J. C. Cook and family, of Cookville, were in Lebanon last week on a trading expedition.

The ladies of the Baptist church at Cookville give an ice cream and strawberry festival at the church next Sunday.

Master Homer Manes, of Cookville, fell last week and broke an arm.

Henry Hutton, of Maries County, who recently bought the John Laughlin farm near Cookville, has removed thereto with his family.

Mrs. Chris Veasman and children, of Dixon, are visiting friends in Bolivar this week.

Rev. Havener, of the Christian church, at Bolivar, is conducting a series of revival meetings at Dixon.

Obe Manuel, of Richland, fell from a freight train, at the Madison Avenue crossing, this city, at 2 o'clock last Sunday afternoon, sustaining serious though not fatal injuries. He was taken home Tuesday.

May 31st

A horse attached to a buggy in which were Mrs. James White and here daughter, Miss Docia, living near Richland, became frightened on Monday of last week and ran away. Both ladies were severely bruised but sustained no permanent injuries. The horse was badly hurt and the buggy demolished.

Dean M. Martin has been elected to the position of Escort in the Modern Woodmen Camp at Richland to fill a vacancy caused by the removal of Bert Yarbrough from that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Teeples, of Hancock, rejoice in the advent of a daughter last week.

An original pension of $6 per month has been granted Mrs. Sarah E. Davis, of Dixon, as a soldier's widow.

Will Mosely and Miss May Metschele, of Swedeborg, were married on Monday of last week, Esq. Patterson performing the ceremony.

Rev. Dunneway, pastor of the Richland circuit, M. E. Church, preached the memorial sermon at Richland last Sunday. Rev. B. F. January performed a like service at Dixon.

Mrs. Mary A. Henshaw, of Wet Glaize, has filed suit against her husband for divorce, alleging cruelty and ill usage.

Rev. Allen preached in Waynesville Friday night to a fair sized congregation.

David A. McWilliams and Miss Ella Mackney, of Crocker, were married there last week.

On Friday, May 17, the wife of C. Kirtsinger, of Lone Star, gave birth to twin boys, 6 and 6 and a half pounds. Mr. K. is very proud of his boys and thinks he is under a lucky star as the same night one of his cows gave birth to twin calves.

Mrs. Joe Hill, of Swedeborg, has removed to Sherman, Texas, with a view to remaining permanent.

Miss Sophia Stroan, who has spent the past two years in California, has returned to her home at Swedeborg.

Miss Cora Decker, of Hancock, went to Springfield last week to meet her affianced, Mr. Cruse, of Northview, and they were quietly married. They will make their home in St. Louis.

Sheep raisers in the vicinity of Decker are complaining of recent depredations by sheep-killing dogs.

The match game of base ball at Richland on Wednesday between the Lebanon "kids" and the Richland club, resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 14 to 13 for Richland. This, by the way, is the same score by which the "kids" won the victory over the Richlandites here on May 16th.

June 6th

W. L. Foster, of Big Piney, was at Church Sunday, and had a very pleasant smile on his face. He says he would be much happier if some of the correspondents of the Herald Democrat had not misrepresented him and made some of the ladies think he was a married man.

Seen by a citizen of Phelps county, way up in the hills of Pulaski, a tall, heavy built young man, a school teacher by profession, a believer in protection by politics, an aspirant to the coveted state of matrimony, but he was very unlike the one spoken of in the Bible, where it says "as a sheep before his shearers is dumb so he openeth not his mouth," but being accompanied by one of Pulaski's fair ones, the music of their voices made a merry chime.

Chas. Tyler had quite a chase after his mule, which got away from him and was making to the west for parts unknown to Charley. He overtook the mule near Crocker and traded him off before he got home. He says any thing that is not satisfied with Phelps county he does not want.

Jun. 7th

Ralph McGregor, of Waynesville, has accepted a position in the store of the uncle, James McGregor, at Dixon.

Col. E. G. Williams and wife are visiting the Confederate Soldier's Home at Higginsville. The colonel takes a lively interest in the home and has contributed liberally to its support.

Rev. W. C. Peterson, postmaster at Waynesville, preached at the Idumea Baptist Church last Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Gann, wife of James Gann, died at her home near Bloodland last week. The remains were interred at Friendship.

A number of delegates from Richland propose attending the Christian Endeavor Convention at Springfield this week.

In the Cyclone corn guessing contest, Carl Knight won the prize, his guess being 799. Alf Sellers guessed 800 and Mrs. Me. E. White, of Waynesville, 793.

Rev. Havener, of the Christian Church at Dixon, closed a series of revival services at his church last week with 11 additions to the church.

Oral Spalding, of Decker, left last week for the Indian Territory on a prospecting tour.

Measles are still raging at Decker.

Jun. 14th

The Richland Baseball Club played a match game Friday with the Crocker nine.

Wheat harvest began this week in the vicinity of Hancock.

Dave Spaulding, of Waynesville, left last Sunday for the Indian Territory.

Miss Ethel Hooker, of Hooker, has returned home after a pleasant visit to friends at Waynesville.

A fishing party composed of Attorney McGregor, Drs. Pippin and Jones, and "Uncle" Billy Bradford, of Waynesville, spent last week on Big Piney.

Arrangements are being made by the Odd Fellows Lodge at Big Piney for a Fourth of July celebration there.

John Reed, better known as Orang-ontang, of Richland, was placed in durance vile at Waynesville last week to await his trial on a charge of stealing a brass from a Frisco locomotive.

State Fish commissioner Thomas Phillips has recently stocked the waters of the Gasconade and Big Piney with 4000 young wall-eyed pike.

W. C. Kerr is having lumber hauled for a business house at Bloodland.

Rev. Dunaway, of the Richland circuit, preached at Lone Star Saturday evening and organized a class of the M. E. Church.

Miss Emma Burbank, of Richland, has been employed to teach the school in the Mt. View district next fall and winter.

Last Sunday was children's Day at Concord. Special services by the Sunday School in the forenoon, followed by a basket dinner and preaching in the afternoon.

Jun. 21st

Misses Dora and Alice Miller, of St. Louis, are guests of their uncle, Tude Mathews, near Waynesville.

Miss Effie Harrison, of Francis, is a guest of her friend, Miss Anna Wyrick, of Waynesville.

The Odd Fellows lodge at Dixon will observe Sunday, June 30, as Decoration Day.

J. E. Rayl, of Crocker, a student at the State University, is at home for the summer.

Judge James G. Gray, of Crocker, died at his home last Friday and was buried at Antioch Saturday afternoon.

Profs. Lumpkin and Decker on Friday closed a successful normal at Waynesville.

Joe Moss, of Dixon, has sold his stock of groceries to Staben Bros.

Jun. 28th

A large coach whip snake ran under a horse ridden by Will Tibbs and his little son, Bud, near Hancock. The snake struck the horse with its spiked tail causing the animal to throw its riders. The boy had his arm broken just above the wrist.

Richland will celebrate next Thursday. Mr. Robt. Lamar, of Houston, will be a permanent speaker on the occasion.

Misses Flora and Lyda Dutcher, of Warrensburg, are guests this week of the family of L. D. Groom, of Richland.

J. A. Elliott, of the Richland Mills, went to Kansas last week to join his wife, who is visiting relatives there.

Mrs. Alice Northrin, of St. Louis, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baker at Waynesville.

The closing exercises of the normal school at Waynesville were conducted from a platform in the court house yard. A large crowd was present and ice cream and cake were served at the close of the exercises.

Ed. Burchard, of Waynesville, left Sunday for St. Louis where he expects to secure a situation in the railway service.

Charlie Dickson, of Hancock, has bought a new steam thresher and traction engine for $1,680.

Jul. 5th

W. T. Pare and wife, of Dixon, spent their Fourth with friends in Conway. Mrs. Joseph Blousman, of Dixon, is the guest this week of friends at Republic.

Mrs. J. L. Wade and daughter, Miss Effie, of Dixon, are guests of her daughter, Mrs. Greener, at Strafford. Miss Effie will remain with her sister until about August 1st.

Miss Bella Brittain, of Dixon, was married on Tuesday of last week to Mr. Harry Thomas, of Bourbon, Rev. Harriman officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left on the Fourth for their home at Bourbon.

Jul. 12th

Lee & Wilson, publishers of the Dixon Echo, has sold the plant and good will to Mr. F. A. Forbes, of St. Louis, formerly editor and proprietor of the Rolla Standard, now defunct.

Dr. M. F. Rollens, of Dixon, has returned from a six weeks' sojourn in Chicago where he has been studying under eye, ear, nose and throat specialists.

The remains of Alfred E. Colley, late Corporal of Company M, 38th infantry, U. S. V., who died at sea on board the transport Logan, on his way home from the Philippines, arrived at Crocker on Tuesday night of last week. The funeral on Wednesday was from the home of his father, G. W. Colley, at Waynesville, conducted by Rev. R. N. Allen, pastor of the Dixon M. E. Church, after which the remains were taken in charge by the Woodmen of the World and interred in the local cemetery.

Jul. 26th

Sam Rollins and Clyde Joiner, pedagogues from Richland, are attending the Teacher's Institute in Waynesville this week.

Aug. 1st

J. M. Williams, of Washington, D. C., dropped in on us last Thursday. He says they have been having rains in that section nearly every other day this summer, and that everything looked green and promising. He went from here to Edgar Springs and will go from there to Waynesville to visit his brother, Ed, who is county clerk of Pulaski county.

Aug. 2nd

The petit jury for the September term of Circuit Court is as follows: G. M. Prewett, W. M. Wright, Wm. T. Decker, Elmer Teeple, J. F. Gilbert, J. N. Burnett, Sam Copeland, J. C. Brown, G. W. Sparks, W. A. Singleton, Jacob Jacobson, J. L. Smith, S. F. Cowan, A. Young, C. T. Tripett, J. C. Rollins, J. M. White, W. A. Bates and C. A. George.

Miss Vera Frederick, of Columbia, is a guest of Miss Cliffie Reagan, at Richland.

Mrs. J. V. Holt and baby are guests of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Titterton, of Richland.

Waynesville is undergoing a public waterworks craze and propose to bond the town for $5,000.

John E. Rayl, a student in the Medical Department of the State University at his home in Crocker for the vacation, returned last week from a visit to relatives in the vicinity of Plato.

W. B. Goforth, the ex-editor and tohsorial artist, has sold out his shop at Dixon with a view to locating at some point on the new railroad, in Maries county.

Aug. 9th

Gold quartz has been discovered by W. T. Hammock in digging a well on his farm near Waynesville which essays $4 per ton.

Married, at the residence of Mrs. Carson in Waynesville on Wednesday of last week, Miss Mary Payne, daughter of John Payne, of Crocker, to Solomon Bartlett, Jr., son of Gordon Bartlett, Judge W. L. Vaught officiating.

Aug. 16th

W. B. Goforth, the barber-editor, who went to the new railroad town in Maries to set up a shop, has returned to Dixon.

A St. Louis Mining Co., which secured a lease on a portion of the Frisco lands near Dixon, will begin prospecting operations next week.

Aug. 23rd

Waynesville "fans" are anticipating rare sport in a prospective match game of baseball between the Waynesville club and a picked nine from Crocker, Bell Creek and Jones Creek, to be pulled off within the near future.

Miss Ida L. Traw, of Richland, and Mr. Martin B. Parsons, of Laquey, drove to Waynesville on Sunday of last week and with the assistance of Rev. W. C. Peterson were made man and wife.

On Saturday evening, Aug. 10, Mrs. Grace Bostick was married to Mr. Edward Kelly, both of Waynesville, Rev. W. C. Peterson officiating.

A. W. Brownfield, of Richland, has returned from El Reno, Okla., having made his selection of a homestead in the Lawton district.

Mrs. M. E. Rogers and daughter, Grace, of Richland, were called last week to Harvard, Ia., on account of the dangerous illness of Mrs. Roger's mother.

The State School Funds apportioned to Pulaski County amount to $4,182.58.

Mrs. Sarah Pryor died at the residence of W. W. Lee near Golden Center, on Sunday, Aug. 11, aged 63 years. The deceased was on the way to visit her brother, O. W. Shockley, when stricken and died before she was able to be moved.

Aug. 30th

Ed Kell, of Waynesville, made a trip to Licking last week with a view to becoming the owner by purchase of the Licking News.

The Waynesville base ball team went up against the Crocker club last week with as a result, a victory for the Waynesville team by a score of 12 to 8.

Eld. J. J. Watts, of Waynesville, and J. M. Mathews and James Stewart, of Tribune, attended the Baptist Association at Idumea Church last Thursday.

A car load of cattle that Dell Wilson was shipping to St. Louis was attached at Crocker on Monday evening by Locker & Murphy, attorneys for Mary Patterson on an old judgment.

Miss Olive Lingsweiler, of Richland, leaves this week for Baldwin, Kansas, to matriculate at the Baker University.

At the meeting of the Liberty Township Sunday School Association, held in Swedeborg last week, John Erickson, of that place, was elected president, and Miss Maud Ellis, of Richland, was chosen secretary for the ensuing year. The next convention will be held in Richland.

Mrs. Sallie A. Murphy, widow of Judge W. H. Murphy, of Crocker, has been granted a renewal of her late husband's pension of $8 per month.

James W. McDowell, of Dixon, has been restored to the pension role at $6 per month.

Sept. 6th

Rev. Newport preached at the Baptist church at Dixon Wednesday evening.

John Edwards and Miss Annie Andrews, both of Franks, were married at Waynesville on Saturday of last week.

William Batty, of Dixon, who has been visiting relatives near Bagnell, returned home Sunday. He was accompanied by Ashley Viesman.

Dick Miller and Miss Bertha McKinzie, both of Frank's Switch, were married at Waynesville on Saturday of last week.

The Dixon Public Schools opened Monday under the direction of Prof. Cole, of St. Clair, and with a fair attendance for opening day.

Just six teacher's certificates were issued by the County Board of Education at its adjourned meeting at Waynesville last Saturday. They were granted to Miss Maude Ellis, Harry Sewall, William Beatty, John Zumwalt, G. W. Jones and ----- Anderson.

Pulaski County has three Teachers' Associations, regularly organized. They are known as the Pulaski County Teachers' Association, the North Side and the South Side Associations, the Gasconade river being the dividing line between the two sub-divisions.

A good many businessmen of Crocker are attending court at Waynesville this week.

C. O. Lenard, a prominent teacher, was married last Sunday to Miss Mary Dearduff, living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dearduff, north of Waynesville.

L. D. Smith, who was tried by a jury in the Circuit court last week on a charge of felonious assault, was acquitted.

Five final decrees of divorce were granted by Judge Woodside at Waynesville last week. They were Richard Stewart vs. Nora Stewart; Irene Bramley vs. Charles Bramley; Stephen H. Bond vs. Pinkie I. Bond; James C. Myrick vs. Mary E. Myrick and Lizzie Taylor vs. W. H. Taylor.

Died--At her home in Crocker Sept. 3, 1901, Martha Stokes. Mrs. Stokes was loved by all who knew her; she was a loving and faithful wife. She was convicted to the Christian faith when only seventeen years old and was faithful until death plucked her from our presence. She was some months over 43 years old when she died. She would often express a desire to live; but would always say, "It is all right if I don't get well. I am ready to go." She had no family to leave, only her husband.

Mr. Guy Tallman is working in Waynesville's livery stable.

The Crocker school is trying to start a library.

The report is that Miss E. Burgess and Dr. Alexander are married.

Sept. 13th

The Public School opened at Waynesville last Monday under the direction of Prof. W. A. Lumpkin, with his wife as assistant.

Uncle Dan Mosier, of Bellefonte, is a guest of his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Mitchell, at Waynesville.

Fred L. Scott was admitted to practice law at Waynesville last week. He passed a very creditable examination before the committee composed of Joe McGregor, J. L. Johnson and W. H. Locker.

The Mt. Gibson school, taught by Miss Lelia Davis, was dismissed last week on account of the prevalence of scarlet fever in the neighborhood.

J. F. Vaughn, who advertised a sale of his stock, farming implements, etc., for Sept. 6, decided to withdraw the property for the time being, and instead of removing to the Indian Territory, to remain in the county.

The County Sunday school convention will convene at Waynesville this (Friday) evening and hold over Sunday. An interesting program has been prepared and a large attendance is confidently expected.

Sept. 20th

Lathe Anderson and Mrs. Neppie Rigsby were quietly married at the bride's home at Waynesville on Sunday night of last week, Rev. W. C. Peterson performing the ceremony. The minister was invited to Mrs. Rigsby's to supper and did not suspect the object of the invitation. The ceremony was quietly performed in the presence of a few friends and not made public until Monday when the groom squared accounts with the boys by setting 'em up to everybody.

Marriage licenses were issued last week to the following parties: William Jewell and Irene Bramley; Tilman Carroll and Shelia E. Burgess; A. O. Crews and Lora Hammill; Wm. L. Anderson and Sarah E. Rigsby; Charles L. Bates and Polly E. Weiners.

Jim Rollins - Attorney

Uncontested Divorce $300*

Bankruptcy $560*

 Plus Court Cost*

Personal Injuries: No Settlement - No Fee

Legal Services You Can Afford

Free Initial Consultation

Evening & Weekend Appts. Available

(573) 336-7265

2014 Maple Tree Center • St. Robert, Mo.

BELL CAB CO.

ST. ROBERT &
FT. LEONARD
WOOD, MO

336-3229

ZEIGENBEIN
SANITATION

"SERVING THIS AREA FOR OVER 40 YEARS"

• Residential • Commercial
• Rural

573-336-4848

114 Zeigenbein Circle
Waynesville, MO. 65583

ECOWATER SYSTEMS

Doug Yurecko, Owner

222 Old Rt. 66, Suite 2
St. Robert, Missouri 65584

(573) 336-3349
800-757-5855

Serving
Pulaski County
With Pride

J. T. Roberts

Pulaski County Sheriff

BURNS

Army Surplus

RETAIL - MAIL ORDER PAINT BALL SUPPLIES

(573) 762-3858

I-44 West, Exit 179
Doolittle, Missouri 65550
Jim Burns, Owner

Sept. 27th

Mrs. Myra Colley, of Prairie Hill, Chariton county, is visiting relatives in Waynesville this week.

Lee Baker and Ed Cook went to Lebanon Monday after the monument erected by the Woodmen of the World at the grave of Alfie Colley.

W. F. Reagan, the Lebanon marble man, was here Wednesday erecting a fine monument at the grave of Alfie Colley.

Miss May Kerr has begun her school in the Shockley district.

Rev. Allen, pastor of the M. E. Church South, at Waynesville, is attending the annual conference at Fredericktown this week.

Dr. B. N. Pippin, Waynesville's tooth carpenter, has moved his office to St. Louis for the practice of his profession. Mrs. Pippin will follow, after a visit with her parents at Waynesville.

The following marriage licenses were issued at Waynesville last week: W. L. Anderson and Sarah E. Rigsby; N. S. Stoward and Nancy A. Carroll; Richard E. Black and Arlie Juergensens.

The handsome monument erected by the Woodmen of the World over the grave of Alfred E. Colley at Waynesville was unveiled on Monday with impressive ceremonies.

On Tuesday evening of last week Miss Arlie Juergensens was united in marriage with Mr. Richard Black at the home of the bride near Waynesville, Judge W. L. Vaught officiating.

Mrs. Nancy Carroll, of Tribune, was married on Sunday of last week to H. S. Steward of Bloodland, Esq. Deaton officiating.

Oct. 4th

Lee Bohannon, of Richland, is packing apples for Nelson & son. Already 1,000 barrels have been packed from one orchard and they are said to be of very fine quality.

Sam Keller suggests that the words "packed in Richland, Mo.," be stenciled on the head of every barrel. A good suggestion.

The Pulaski County Teachers' association meeting which was to have been held at Waynesville last Saturday has been postponed one month on account of the illness of President W. A. Lumpkin.

Mrs. C. N. Colley and children of Waynesville are visiting her parents at Dixon this week.

L. N. Huff, the Waynesville merchant, attended the Log Rolling at Lebanon last week.

Married, at the Waynesville post-office on Wednesday, Sept. 25, Miss Minnie Moneymaker to Mr. Jesse Steen, both of Faulkner, Miller county, Rev. W. C. Peterson officiating.

G. A. Burchard, of Waynesville, has bought J. A. Rayl's drug store at Crocker, and taken possession.

A match game of base ball was played last Saturday between the "C. M. A." club, and a picked nine composed of players from Dry Creek, Bear Ridge and the Gasconade bottoms.

Oct. 11th

The North Pulaski Teachers' association meets at Swedeborg on Saturday, Oct. 19. An interesting program has been prepared.

Rev. J. R. Hudgens will preach the funeral of John Hullett on Sunday, Oct. 20, at the home of deceased father, six miles south of Waynesville.

Miss Maude Bunker, of St. Louis, has taken charge of Christenson's millinery department at Waynesville and is apparently quite a success.

Rev. R. S. Blunt, of the northern part of the state, began a series of revival services at the Christian church in Richland last Sunday.

Mrs. H. C. Murphy, Richland's milliner, spent last week in St. Louis studying the latest styles and purchasing her fall and winter stock.

Mrs. F. E. Lumbar and daughter, Mrs. Minnie Wigginton, of Iberia, stopped at Crocker several days last week on their way to St. Louis. They were guests of Mrs. W. T. Burks.

Mrs. Effie Barry, of St. Louis, is a guest this week of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Bates, near Crocker.

W. Mitchel has paid Herbert Graff, of Hancock, over a thousand dollars for the apples grown on his farm this year and they have not all been barreled yet. Mr. Graff has 4,000 young trees in his orchard.

Ft. Wood
Auto
Salvage

We Sell Original Equipment,
Used Auto and Truck Parts
And Rebuildable Vehicles
Call For Current Prices

WAYNESVILLE
2nd Stop Light On The Ft. Wood Spur.
Up To The Hub Restaurant.
Turn Right 1/4 Mile On The Right.
16805 Superior Road
573-336-8886

Michels Frames & Things
for all your framing needs!

- * Limited Edition Prints
- * Needle Work Framing
- * Gift Ideas
- * Conservation Techniques
- * Military Art
- * Ethnic Art
- * Repairs
- * Open Edition Posters
- * Memorabilia Framing
- * Damage Estimates

690 Missouri Ave., Suite 21 St. Robert, MO.
573-336-8666
Email: www.michelsframesandthings.com

Bassett
INSURANCE AGENCY

We offer very competitive rates on ...
Retail • Business Insurance

AUTO • HOME • LIFE • BUSINESS

Call us for a price quote today!
(573) 336-4337
515 Old Rt. 66 • St. Robert, Mo

DRURY
UNIVERSITY

In the Fort Leonard Wood Area for more than 40 years!

573 - 329 - 4400

Drury University is a nationally known and accredited non-profit institution.

TK'S
PIZZA

Pick-Up or Delivery AVAILABLE

PICK-UP SPECIAL
One 15" 2-Topping LARGE $5.62+Tax
(Additional Topping $1.00 each)

336-FAST (336-5616)

OPEN: Sunday - Thursday 11 am - 11 pm
Friday & Saturday 11 am - 12 pm
tkspizza.com

MBE MAIL BOXES ETC.
Big or Small - We Ship It All!!

Only Mail Boxes Etc. offers 6 shipping choices:

- UPS
- Air, Ground, International
- FedEx • RPS
- Air, Ground, International
- DHL
- International
- USPS
- Express, First Class, Priority, Certified, International

MOTOR FREIGHT LINES

Waynesville Rolla
Townfield Plaza Southside Shoppers World
774-5538 364-0006

The Richland Cyclone hoists the name of Arthur P. Murphy, of Crocker, as a candidate for the Republican nomination for congress in this district.

On Saturday night, Sept. 28, Caleb Harris, one of Pulaski's pioneer citizens, was gathered by the grim reaper. For 86 years he had lived an upright honorable life and died loved by his family and friends and respected by all who knew him.

John P. Jones, of Lebanon, was in Richland Friday, ostensibly to visit friends, but really to arrange matters with a view to taking Sam Keller's position on the Cyclone, when Sam shall go west.

Oct. 18th

D. E. McCulley, formerly of Bailey, has been appointed secretary of the Nebraska Plumbing Co., at Omaha, Neb., which not only conducts a plumbing business, but deals extensively in steam engines and boilers, steamheaters and plumbers supplies in general.

The State Board of Agriculture, under the auspices of the Pulaski Farmers Institute, will hold a two days meeting at Richland on the 4th and 5th of next month.

Richland's camp, M. W. A., is growing rapidly, the recruits being almost altogether among young men.

J. B. Lewis, the Richland stationary and news dealer, is reported to have been seriously if not fatally injured by colliding with a street car in St. Louis last week.

J. H. Long has sold his Swedeborg farm to Lewis Baker and will remove to Richland.

Mrs. Dennis D. Lewis died at the family residence in Richland on Wednesday evening of last week.

T. J. Combs will represent Pulaski county on the petit jury of the U. S. District court which convenes at Jefferson City next Monday.

Daniel Stump, of Waynesville, has been granted a pension under an original application at the rate of $8 per month.

Mr. A. W. Brownfield has purchased for $1,000 the handsome cottage residence of Attorney C. H. Shubert on Chesnutt street, Richland, Mr. Schubert having removed to St. Louis.

Mrs. Ella Brown, a daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. W. Burhans, of Stoutland, has purchased the Traylor property, on McClurg avenue, Richland, for $400.

Miss Bertha Gibson, of Richland, is at Fairland, I. T., to spend several months with relatives.

On Saturday, Ed Lingsweiler, of Richland, returned with his family from a visit with relatives at Roby, Texas county.

Eld. H. M. Sutton and family, of Spring Garden, Miller county, have removed to Richland and occupy a cottage on Camden avenue.

Mrs. Latitia Ling, of Franks, has been granted an original soldier's widow's pension of $8 per month.

The Sunday school at Lone Star is doing excellent work and is preparing to give an entertainment during the holidays.

Prof. Lumpkin issued the first number of his School Journal from Waynesville this week.

The following marriage licenses were issued in Waynesville last week: Virgil Mitchell and Lizzie Sparks; John Keeny and Mary Rino.

Died Oct. 14, at Crocker, Mr. Thomas Anderson, aged 85.

Oct. 25th

Geo. W. Peck, of Dixon, had W. E. Hancock arrested last week on a charge of disturbing his peace. The trouble grew out of the attempt of Peck to get possession of a farm which he had recently bought and on which Hancock resided.

Collector Wheeler finished his collecting tour on the railroad last Saturday and will spend this week at the several advertised points in Roubidoux and Piney townships.

Dr. Alexander, of Swedeborg, has accepted a position in a drug store at Phillipsburg and will probably locate there.

Uncle Tom's Cabin Co., held forth at the opera house in Richland last Friday night to a packed audience.

A protracted meeting at the Christian church at Richland is in progress this week under the direction of Rev. J. R. Blunt, assisted by his brother, Rev. R. Blunt, of Brookfield, Mo.

Ed Lingsweiler and family of Richland have returned from a visit to her family at Roby, Texas county.

Mrs. W. S. Musgrave, of Richland, accompanied by Miss Kate Finley, are visiting relatives at Greely Center, Neb. Mr. Musgrave accompanied them as far as Lincoln, Neb.

Dr. W. L. Reagan, of Richland, was last week called to Bristow, I. T., to attend Walter Groom who is seriously ill.

Arandell Goforth (of Dixon) has sold his Photo galley to Carter and Co. And gone into the chicken business. Success to you, Arandell.

Cliff Harper (of Dixon) has been working on the new railroad at Freeburg for three months, at $20 and board per month.

The Dixon Echo has been edited, for the last few issues, by a little 13 year old girl, Miss Forbis, and the paper came out O. K. Mr. Forbis, the editor, has been sick for some time, but is getting better.

Everette Rowden (of Crocker) went opossum hunting Monday night and brought a 5 lb. opossum back with him.

Nov. 1st

Miss Ethel Hooker, of Hooker, Mo., visited friends at Waynesville last week.

Master John Manes, of Waynesville, is spending the winter with friends at Stoutland.

Alva Pippin, who is attending school at Waynesville, spent last week with his parents at Richland.

The Odd Fellows Lodge at Waynesville will give its annual banquet and celebration at their hall on Saturday evening, Nov. 16. Quite a number of visiting brothers have been invited and are expected to take part in the program.

Miss Lelia Davis, who is teaching the Mt. Gibson school, has set the pace in a social way for her neighborhood. Last week she gave a Possum and Sweet tater banquet for the benefit of the Public School library fund, and $6 were realized as net proceeds.

George W. Wayman and Zora Laughlin were granted a marriage license at Waynesville last week.

Noah Clinkingbeard, the Swedeborg Miller, is preparing to fit his mill with the roller process, instead of buhrs. He will sell his buhrs at a bargain.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Oliver, late of Stoutland, have moved to Richland.

Col. J. W. Armstrong, of Richland, a member of Governor Dockery's military staff, spent last week at Jefferson City.

Miss Blanche Delaplain, who for several weeks has been a guest of Rev. J. A. Bradshaw and family at Richland, left last week for Denver, Colo.

Charles Hutchinson and Harry Dobson, of Dixon, are patients of Dr. Shockley, the eye specialist, at Brownfield this week.

Mrs. G. S. Scott and children, of Cripple Creek, Colo., are guests this week of her father-in-law, Judge Scott, of Dixon.

Mr. Arandell Goforth is the happiest man in Dixon. It is a 10 lb. Boy.

Mr. Harry Rhea (of Dixon) went to St. Louis this week to hve his eyes treated by a specialist.

Mr. Forbis, editor of the Echo, is able to be in the office again, but is quite feeble and weak.

A musical entertainment was given at the home of Dr. Harrison (of Dixon), in honor of Miss Ophelia Harper Saturday evening. Everyone enjoyed themselves, as Mrs. Harrison knows how to entertain her guests.

Died at Crocker Tuesday, the infant son of Mrs. Ayilas Hyatt.

Mr. Hiram Head is moving into Crocker this week.

Nov. 8th

Miss Beulah Thompson, of Crocker, is attending school at Dixon and stopping with her aunt, Mrs. R. T. Harrison.

In climbing a persimmon tree on Saturday of last week, Jimmie Crismon, a 12- year-old son of G. O. Crismon, of Fairview neighborhood, fell and fractured an arm.

The Farmers Institute of Pulaski county, entertained the members of the State Board of Agriculture on Wednesday and Thursday at Dixon.

Rev. W. T. Pare, pastor of the M. E. Church at Dixon, is holding revival services this week at the church. He is being assisted by Rev. Dunaway, of Hazel Creek.

Miss Ellen Wright, of Pulaski county, was married at the parlors of the Commercial hotel at Dixon on Sunday evening of last week to Mr. J. W. Batty, a teacher in the Dixon Public schools, Rev. Allen officiating.

Leo Baker has traded for the Ira McCorkle property in Waynesville and moved his family thereto.

Donates each year to Project Graduation for Waynesville and other local schools

Bought tables for the St. Robert Community Center

Donated to Polly's Garden at the Waynesville Hospital

Donated to the Ronald McDonald House

Donated to the Waynesville Literacy Program

Sent CARE packages overseas Gave scholarships at

Waynesville Graduation

Helped with school costs for an LPN

Donated to the Pulaski County Crisis Center

Donated to the Crocker Literacy Program

Donated to the first Pulaski County ambulance

Bought trees for the City of Waynesville

Donated to Laquey for two years for playground equipment

Gave Christmas gifts to needy families

Sponsored Coats for Kids

Participated in Children of the Future

Donated to the Pulaski County Museum

Donated to Special Olympics

Gave Missouri State Highway Patrol teddy bears for comfort to children involved in accidents

Donated to the Waynesville High School men's choir

Bought school supplies, gloves and coats for children

Bought supplies and assisted ladies at Primrose Center in making Valentine cookies

Donated to the Historical Society of Pulaski County

A bond develops between the Club members as they work together to accomplish a need in the community. A bond is created as the Club works with community members and organizations for the betterment of our community.

A scrapbook has been kept throughout the years. If a former member would enjoy this scrapbook and memories, please inform the Club. The Club appreciates any history or memories from former members so that a record can be added to the history of the Club.

This is a small group of fourteen ladies, but the accomplishments are big. Present members are Kathy Tallant, Laura Patton, Helen Pitt, Helen Parsons, Cindy Grizzell, Annette Troutt, Evelyn Quesenberry, Beverly Breeden, Robin Aller, Billie Roam, Dee Dixon, Glenda Slawson, Carol Boegler and Opal Shultz.

continued from page 45

Miss Rhoda Glasgow, of Carthage, is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. L. N. Hufft, of Waynesville, this week.

Marriage licenses were issued last week to Charlie Williams and Effie Smith; C. S. Anderson and Edna M. Newell; James W. Batty and Ellen Wright.

Mr. L. Glynn, of Sioux Rapids, has settled on a farm near Waynesville.

Miss Effie Dodson, of Brookfield, and Rev. John Blunt, of Richland, were married at Richland on Tuesday of last week.

Clint Breeden has resigned his position as teacher in the Baldrige school on account of failing health.

Richland ladies gave a chrysanthemum show Saturday afternoon.

Miss Effie Smith, of Richland, was married to Mr. John Williams, of Monett, on Sunday of last week at the home of the bride near Richland. Mr. and Mrs. Williams were treated to a charivari Monday night.

Crocker camp M. W. A., gave an oyster supper Saturday evening at which A. P. Murphy, of Crocker, Hon. Fred Lombard, of Iberia, and Sam Keller, of Richland, made addresses.

Nov. 15th

Mrs. Clara McClurkin, of Oakdale, Ill., is a guest this week at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bailey in the south part of the county.

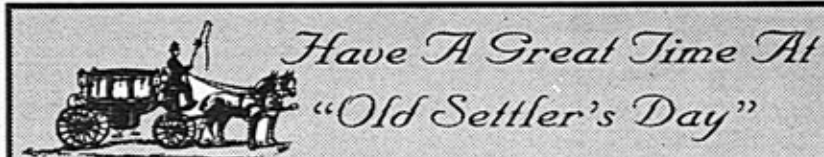

W. H. Peterson, of Laquey, has bought W. L. Vaught's blacksmith shop at Waynesville and took charge Monday.

Sam Rollins, teacher in Bellefonte school district, has been forced to dismiss his school on account of the prevalence of smallpox.

Miss Myrtle Gustin, of Salem, is a guest of friends in Waynesville this week. Miss Myrtle is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Gustin, of the Salem Republican, who formerly resided here and published the Graphic.

J. H. Yarborough, of Waynesville, has been appointed a guard at the Missouri penitentiary and entered upon his duties on Monday of last week.

The proverbial stork was most generous in its donation last week to the family of Noah Duncan, 5 miles east of Dixon. Triplets came to surprise

We Offer A Variety of Printing Services...

- Business Cards • Calendars
- Booklets • Continuous Forms
- Newspapers • Circulars
- Sale Booklets • Magnetic Signs

Custom Printing To Fit Your Special Needs

 LONE OAK
PRINTING CO.

300 Tracker Plaza - Crocker, MO

573-736-2806

Call Toll Free 1-877-736-2806

NOW THERE'S MORE TO LOVE AT

ALL YOU CAN EAT
BUFFET $5.49

CHILDREN 5 - 10 $2.99

CHILDREN 4 & Under FREE w/ Adult Purchase
SENIOR'S All You Can Eat Buffet $3.99 Mon. & Tues.

Try our new KFC All You Can Eat Buffet
Featuring The Colonel's Original Recipe and Extra Crispy Chicken.
Plus, Your Favorite Side Items.

We Now Deliver To Limited Areas

336-5320

Old Route 66

St. Robert, MO. 65584

Nobody's Cookin' Like Today's KFC.

and bless the happy parents.

The wife of Mr. Frank J. Bradshaw of Richland presented her husband with a son one day last week.

Mrs. A. W. Titterington, of Richland, is a guest this week of her daughter, Mrs. J. V. Holt, at St. James.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Yeomans, of Richland, are visiting relatives and friends at Des Moines, Ia.

W. F. B. Goforth (of Dixon) has painted his house and has moved upstairs this week. He has also built him a hog pen.

Mr. J. Crismon (of Dixon) shipped a fine male bruto to St. Louis this week which weighed 1700 pounds.

Nov. 22nd

Miss Grace Hutchinson and Josephine Johnson, of Waynesville, are guests this week of their young friend, Miss Ethel Hooker, of Hooker, Mo.

The Union Thanksgiving services at Richland this year will be held in the M. E. church and Rev. H. M. Sutton, of the Baptist church, will deliver the sermon.

Mrs. E. G. Williams, of Waynesville, was called to Crocker last week by a message announcing the dangerous illness of her daughter, Mrs. Sallie Stokes.

Miss Myrtle Sharp, of Waynesville, is a guest this week of her uncle, John Peterson, at Iberia.

Nov. 29th

It required 16 horses to haul the trucks of the new steam grader at Dixon last Tuesday. The machine is to be used on the new railroad near Eldon.

Henry R. Anderson, wife and baby, and Mrs. and Mrs. Joe Warren, of Conway, spent last week with their old friends, Rev. W. T. Pare and family of Dixon.

Mrs. John C. White, for 30 years a resident of Dixon, died there on Saturday, Nov. 17, aged 73 years. The funeral was from the house on Monday of last week, conducted by Rev. George Russell, after which the remains were interred in the Dixon cemetery.

Clif Harper has purchased the grocery store of W. F. Goforth at Dixon.

Mr. Frazier, of Salem, Ia., who bought W. L. Wilson farm near Dixon, came in last week with a carload of fine stock consisting of horses and Shropshire-down sheep.

Mr. Frazier's brother came at the same time to take possession of his farm near Crocker.

E. S. Max, of Dixon, has purchased the interest of his partner, Wm. Heller, in the St. James elevator and will move to that place.

Rev. Allen of Dixon, occupied the pulpit of the M. E. church, South, at Waynesville, Sunday, preaching both forenoon and evening.

M. B. Nehno, late of Joliet, Ill., has removed with his family to Waynesville and will remove again to his farm recently purchased near Waynesville as soon as suitable buildings can be erected.

Dec. 6th

Sam Ballard, of Waynesville, is making arrangements to remove to Colorado soon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Reed, of Waynesville, took Thanksgiving dinner with friends in Lebanon.

Prof. Lumpkin's paper, the School News, has suspended publication on account of the postoffice department refusing it admission to the mails as second class matter.

Mr. W. H. Owsley, Waynesville's saw and grist mill man, has moved his family to his homestead north of town, and Mr. Nehno, a new comer, now occupies the house vacated by Mr. Owsley.

Lathe Anderson has taken charge of G. A. Burchard's stock of shoes at Waynesville, while Mr. B takes the road as a salesman for a St. Louis house.

Will J. Barrows, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Barrows, of Lebanon, who during the past year has been employed in the Census bureau at Washington, D. C., arrived at home in Waynesville on Wednesday of last week for a month's visit with his family.

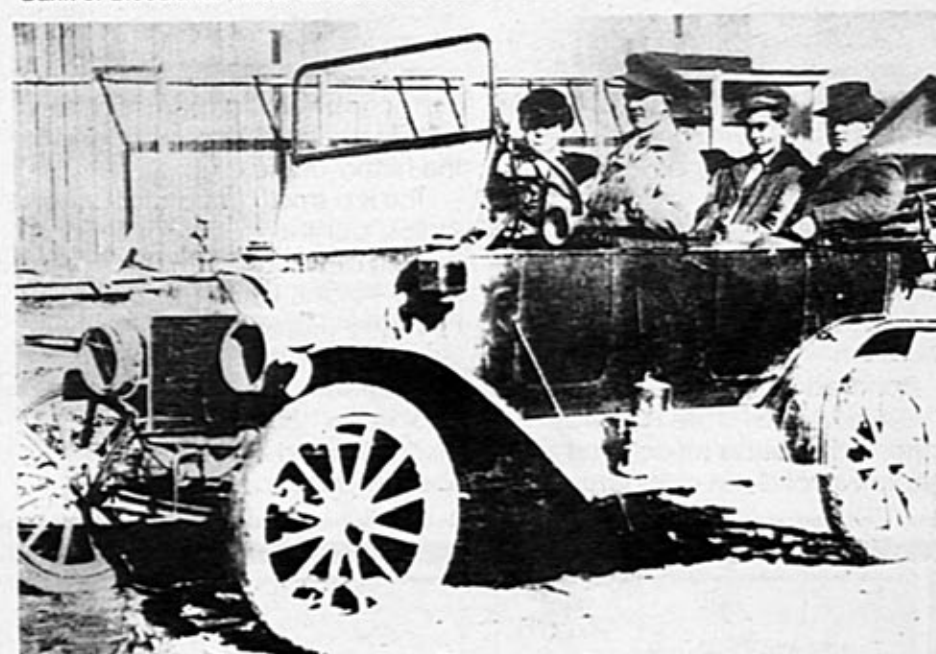

On account of being engaged in an interesting meeting at Dixon, Rev. Allen did not fill his regular appointment at Waynesville on the fourth Sunday in November. He will however, be on hand next Sunday.

Mrs. Joe Armstrong and children, of Carthage, are visiting the family of Capt. H. E. Warren, at Richland.

Editor Sam Keller, of the Richland Cyclone, has returned from a visit to

Bank of Bloodland. Photo courtesy of Cherie Rigsby.

Mert Skaggs of Crocker giving buddy, Doc Millette, and other friends a lift. Photo courtesy of Cherie Rigsby.

Artie and Kate Rumbaugh and their mother, Laura Rumbaugh, of Bloodland. Artie taught for a while at Bloodland School and married Mert Skaggs of Crocker. Photo courtesy of Cherie Rigsby.

continued from page 50

arrangements to travel to Tulsa to meet both of them during our conversation.

A couple months later during our visit with them, we were able to obtain copies of pictures of our ancestors that we had never seen. My interest in genealogy had just brought together families that had not been in touch in over sixty years. It was one of the greatest feelings in the world. Time has since gone by, and my Moment in Time database now had over 100,000 names. About 90 percent of the names have some ties to Pulaski County. I still receive requests via the genealogy web pages and people that visit the library. Time has allowed me to put the information on CD now instead of in book form. I have never claimed that the information I compiled was 100 percent accurate, but it is a start for many people that has not idea where their roots started. Someday I will donate my entire file to our libraries. That is when I get done compiling information about the Pioneer Families for Pulaski County.

St. Joseph, where he went to attend a meeting of the Republican editors of the state, in the organization which resulted, Sam was chosen one of the vice presidents.

Jim Wilson, a Gasconade bottom farmer, recently sold 600 bushels of wheat at 65c., and 1,000 bushels of corn at 75 cents, which was the surplus of this year's crops.

Dec. 13th

J. W. Manes has located at Swedeborg with a view to taking a job on the Frisco again.

J. W. Burton, of Linn Creek, was in Waynesville to interview the county school commissioner and try to secure a certificate of competency to teach school.

Ed P. Cook, of Hanna, was in Waynesville last week on business.

A Sunday school convention is to be held at Pleasant Grove Friday and Saturday, December 28-29.

Died—on Wednesday, Dec. 4, at Waynesville, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Logan, age 4 days.

Sam Ballard, of Waynesville, left last week for Cripple Creek, Colo., to accept a position as stenographer and bookkeeper for a mercantile firm.

Mr. John D. Roach and Miss Lillie Schneider, of Dixon, are said to have stolen a march on their friends Sunday of last week to run down to Newburg to get married.

A camp of Royal neighbors was organized at Dixon on Monday night of last week. The following are the officers elect: Mrs. Effie Sease, oracle; Mrs. Allie VonGrempe, vice oracle; Mrs. Minnie Murphy, chancellor; Mrs. Sallie Allen, recorder; Mrs. Sue Maney, receiver; Miss Maud Houk, marshal; Mrs. M. D. Murphy, inner sentinel; Mrs. Joanah Schneider, outer sentinel; Mrs. Prudence Hale, Mrs. Emma Branson and Chas. Murphy, board-of-managers.

Dec. 20th

Judge W. L. Vaught's little daughter, Myrtle, is thought to be in a dangerous condition from smallpox.

Mrs. J. H. Yarbrough, late of Waynesville, has joined her husband at Jefferson City where they will reside, he having been appointed a penitentiary guard.

The Waynesville Odd Fellows selected the following corpe of officers for the ensuing six months at their last regular meeting: W. A. Lumpkin, N. G.; A. F. Mitchell, V. G.; J. L. Mitchell, Secretary; J. W. Wheeler, Treasurer.

Mrs. J. L. Johnson, of Waynesville, came near losing her eyesight last week by a can of fruit she was sealing exploding for overheat and throwing the juice into her face and eyes. She was badly burned, but it is thought her eyes escaped serious injury.

Dec. 27th

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Manes, of Waynesville, are rejoicing over the advent of a son on Dec. 18.

Prof. Lumpkin, School commissioner of Pulaski County and Superintendent of the Waynesville public schools, is down with smallpox and the schools have been closed until after holidays.

Miss Lelia Daws closed her school in the Mt. Gibson district last week on account of the smallpox and is at her home at Waynesville for the holidays.

Mrs. Mert Lane and children, of Waynesville, left last week for Naylor, Ripley county, to join her husband and father, who has located there.

Sheriff Anderson established quarantine regulations over the premises of R. L. Barlow, near Bellefonte, last week on account of smallpox in the family.

Mrs. J. M. Colly and children, of Waynesville, have joined Mr. Colly in Oklahoma, where he has been employed for several months.

The following marriage licenses were issued at Waynesville last week: Charles Ousley and Anna M. Rose; George Simpson and Cora Patton.

Jan. 3rd

Richland Camp of Royal Neighbors gave a Shoe Social Tuesday evening at their hall. Your feet are measured when you apply for admission and you pay an admission fee of 1 cent per inch measurement of your peded extremities.

The smallpox situation in Waynesville is improving. Only one new case has appeared in town and several small pox patients have recovered and are no longer affected by the quarantine regulations.

The residence of W. S. Taylor, 2 miles north of Dixon, was burglarized on Christmas night and about $45 in money stolen.

Miss Grace Murphy, a pupil at Hardin college, Mexico, Mo., spent the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Murphy, at Crocker.

The public installation of the officers elect of Richland's New Masonic Lodge at the opera house on Saturday evening, Dec. 21, was quite an occasion of popular interest. The beautiful installation ceremonies were impressively conducted by Rt. W. M., John D. Vintell, D. D., of St. Louis, with the assistance of District Deputy Grand Master, H. T. Wright, of Lebanon.

Jim Hancock, former citizen of Richland, of stalwart frame and democratic proclivities, has been appointed a member of the St. Louis police force. Jim is supposed to have got his graft through the influence of Dr. H. C. Murphy and in testimony of his appreciation sent the Dr. a box of fine cigars for Christmas.

The Crocker Elevator and Exchange Mill operated by J. L. Hoops. Photo courtesy of Mary Ann Kamins.

A year after graduating from Crocker High School in 1920, Gerald Krause went to California to work as an accountant for Signal Oil Company. Always a sharp dressed man, he was later promoted to an executive position with the company. His grandson, Mike Scott, won major League baseball's National League Cy Young Award for pitching for the Houston Astros in 1986. Photo courtesy of Marry Ann Kamins.