

BRIGHT SPOTS AND HIGH SPOTS IN CROCKER

*Just at this season of the year,
When strawberries are so near,
Strawberry talks are all you hear,
The whole town is a strawberry dream,
Getting ready for strawberries and cream,
With twenty-five acres in one stream.*

*Crocker, is a good railroad town,
Sits like jewel in a crown,
Surrounded by a lot of inland town.
The depot is an honor to the place,
Its management is an adding grace.*

*Crocker, a most energetic town,
Always for business is renown,
This is known for miles around.
Crocker's hotel is one of the best;
This is often said by one of the guests.
Run by a woman's hand,
Whose skill is known far over the land.*

*Crocker's post office gives an official grace,
Seldom found in such a small place,
Whose management is as fine as lace.
Crocker State Bank is very good,
As solid as the hardest wood,
You will always find in
Young Thurman, or Tommy Turpin,
Whose personality, business will win.*

*Crocker's stores are among the best;
In Styles the Lady's store leads all the rest.
All the stores are doing well,
Just you listen to what they tell,
And, hear the amount of goods they sell;
In the drug store, you will find Mrs. Sell,
Whose sweet smile you know so well.
Both doctors are ever near,
The people's ills to bear,
To the public they have made themselves dear.*

*In second hand lore,
Seek Lee Wilson's store,
You will find what you want,
And something more.*

*Crocker is never known to stand still;
Now it is running like an old saw mill,
Except, now and then when it has a new thrill;
In which, the Mayor plays with a good will.
New improvements are moving with a might,
With Tice's garage, shedding its light,
From Newcomb's new cars,
Which are shining so bright.*

*Citizens are seen stepping quite light,
With Mayor James Hill just in sight,
To see the whole town is running right,
Surely Crocker is shedding its light.*
