You will notice in the "News of 1914" that there were at least two marriage ceremonies at the Black Hotel, aka the Old Stagecoach Stop. These were not uncommon in the last half of the nineteenth and first two decades of the twentieth centuries.

From the Editors:

Welcome to the 2014 edition of the Old Settlers Gazette. This is the eleventh issue published by the Old Stagecoach Stop Foundation. It was more than a decade ago that the new owners of radio station KJPW decided to let us try our hand at publishing the tabloid in conjunction with Old Settlers Day, which we sponsor. We continue to be very grateful for the opportunity.

This issue is made possible by the advertisers herein. The ad revenue not only makes a free issue possible, but it also provides funds that help maintain Pulaski County's oldest publicly accessible building—the Old Stagecoach Stop House Museum.
