DIXON

The Opera House stood where the Catholic Church is now located in Dixon. The Opera House was used as a home, a church, a schoolhouse, and a community gathering place. Many of the town's Chautauqua's were held at the Opera House. (Photo courtesy of Lois Kreiser)

The Modern Mercantile was run by P.A. Christisen and was located in the building now occupied by Goodrich Gas in downtown Dixon. (Photo courtesy of Lois Kreiser)
