

BLOODLAND 1930

The Junior-Senior Banquet was given in the dining room of the Bell Hotel at Waynesville on Wednesday April 23rd, 1930. The group consisted of the members of the Junior and Senior classes, the faculty, and Arthur Dye of the Junior play cast. Vance Koonce, president of the Senior class, served as toastmaster.

Red Roses, the Senior Class flower, were used as decoration. Many toasts were proposed on appropriate subjects by the revelers in a humorous and entertaining manner. This was the first affair of this kind ever given in Bloodland High School and was to become an annual affair.

Bloodland's Elementary Students.

This outdoor basketball court was located in front of the Bloodland School building. Pictured here is the Bloodland Girls Team playing against the Dixon Bulldogs. Dixon's band members also attended the game. Bloodland won by a score of 20 to 18. (Photo courtesy of Nell Miller)