

HOOKER, MO

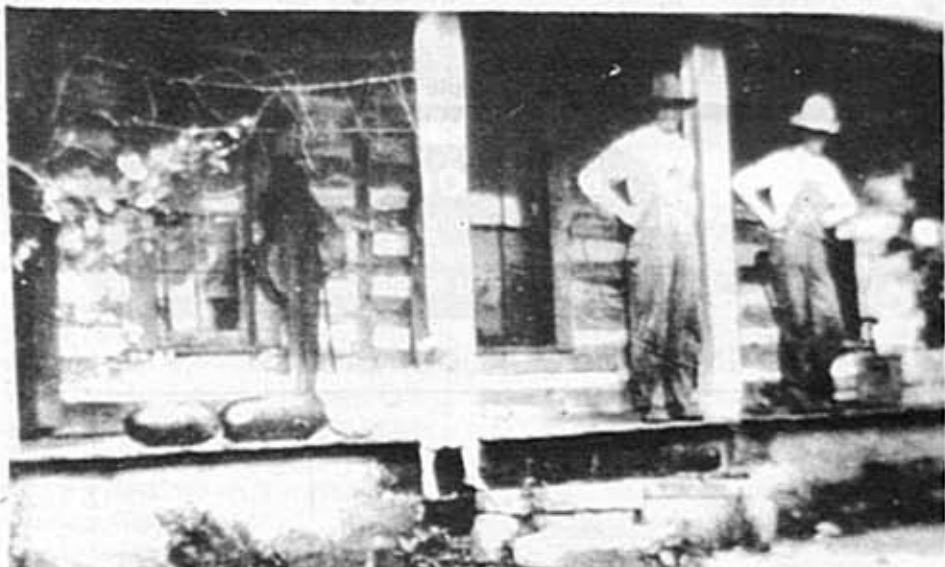

AND THE BIG PINEY

The old Hooker house in the late 40's owned by Bill Prewett and later Birdie Russell. (Courtesy of Ruby Fields)

Martha Foster home located on the Fort Leonard Wood reservation on the Big Piney at Foster Ford. (Courtesy of Ruby Fields)

Ruby Fields, Earl Foster and Monroe Foster at the Martha Foster home around 1918. Note the side saddle hanging on the porch. (Courtesy of Ruby Fields)

Norman Fields and Martha Foster. Tents in the background are soldiers camped at Fort Leonard Wood in 1941. (Courtesy of Ruby Fields)

Old Spring Creek Post Office (Courtesy of Ruby Fields)

Old Spring Creek Post Office (Courtesy of Ruby Fields)